"Billposters Trust"

Is Ready to Dissolve

Attorney General McKendall will receive notice today from the so-called "billposters trust" that it is ready to follow the example of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and dissolve. Trust such notice will be served on the billposters in the United States in dispatches from Chicago, the headquarters of the "trust," today.

Suit against the alleged combine was begun by Department of Justice officials recently. Since then, the organization has declared its willingness to conform with every wish of the Government, and it will be immediately dropped. It is understood that the suit is a civil one, directed against the billposters and not against the Government, and that the billposters are ready to pay for their billposting activities and to distribute the proceeds to the members of the defendant association.

Dear Sir:—Having occasion to move last summer, we had on hand a few articles of furniture to dispose of. On reading the advertisement in the Times of the Square Deal Furniture Company, 501 Eye street northwest, I dropped them a postal card asking them to call at a stated time. They not only had their representative on hand, as requested, but I was most agreeably surprised at the generous prices they offered for the articles we had for sale. I take pleasure in commending this firm to those who desire to obtain a "square deal." Very respectfully, FRANK L. THOMPSON.
